

UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA

Campus:	Santa Cruz
Project Name:	McHenry Project
Project Description:	The McHenry Project will construct a new addition to the existing McHenry Library. The new space will be used to help meet campus growth-related needs for instruction and research space, and provide permanent additional space for the Library. When existing Library functions have relocated to the new facility, the existing building will receive seismic, ADA, and other mandatory life-safety improvements, and library and instruction and research space renovations.
